He also competed on two relay teams at the prestigious Penn Relays. Dave is a member of the Rindge Tech Alumni Hall of Fame and in 1995, he was honored as its Man of the Year.

John Purcell (CHLS 1962)

John Purcell was an exceptional, well-rounded, and highly motivated athlete who starred in baseball, hockey, and football at CHLS. His passion for sports allowed him to achieve success in all of these sports, while earning him all-league and all-state honors. John still holds the record for the longest punt return in Cambridge sports' history; a return of 108 yards. He continued his magnificent athletic career at Northeastern. John was also a USA Army veteran with the 101st air command group.

Ben Brathwaite (Rindge Tech 1964)

Ben Brathwaite was the undisputed leader of the great Rindge Tech football and basketball teams of 1963 and 1964. Ben was a hard running fullback and ferocious middle linebacker. As co-captain of the 1964 football team, he was voted to the All-Cambridge team in both his junior and senior years. In basketball, Ben was the sixth man on the 1963 Suburban League and Tech Tourney championship teams and a top rebounder and scorer on the '64 Suburban League and Tech Tourney teams. He also was named to the all - Suburban league team and was honored as MVP of the league.

Lloyd Merriman (Rindge Tech 1969)

Lloyd Merriman was a three-year varsity starter on the Rindge basketball team. He led his team to the renowned Tech Tourney each of his varsity years. He was named to numerous Suburban League all-star teams (MVP in 1969) and was named to the Globe and Herald all - scholastic teams his senior year. Lloyd was also a member of the Sunkist High School All American Team. He played his college basketball at Tyler Community College in Tyler, TX and St Augustine's University in Raleigh, NC

Keith Barnette (CHLS 1971)

Keith Barnette was a stellar three-sport athlete in football, basketball, and track. He captained both the football and basketball teams his senior year. His football career stands out, not only through high school, but also at Boston College where he led the country in scoring in 1974. Keith compiled a BC school record of 22 touchdowns. After college, he was drafted in the fifth round by the Minnesota Vikings of the NFL and played one year in the professional Canadian football league.

Phil Hamilton (Rindge Tech 1975)

Phil Hamilton was one of Rindge Tech's most outstanding athletes. As co-captain of a Suburban League and state class championship track team, Phil was a talented performer in the javelin and shot put. In football, he was a highly skilled physical defensive end and offensive tackle for the great Rindge football teams of the mid 70's. An MVP of Rindge's football team, he was named to the Globe All-Scholastic football team and he was also selected to the prestigious Harry Agganis All-Star Classic. Phil capped his outstanding career at the University of New Hampshire, where he was a starter at left tackle for three years.

Edward Sullivan (CRLS 1981)

Edward Sullivan was one of the most versatile athletes in Cambridge athletic history. Edward excelled in three sports; football, basketball, and track. In 1980, he was a member of CRLS's state championship basketball team. In football, his offensive and defensive skills resulted in Ed's being selected to multiple Suburban league all-star teams, Boston Globe all-scholastic recognition, and invitations to the prestigious Shriner's and Agganis All Star Games. After high school Ed had an outstanding football career at the University of Iowa and the University of Mass.

Rich Kelley (CRLS 1984)

Rich Kelley was among the greatest middle distance runners in Cambridge track's long, distinguished history. His multiple award season his senior year culminated in his being selected as the Boston Globe Athlete of the Year in outdoor track. In 1984, Rich anchored the CRLS 4x800 meter relay. The winning time in that relay of 7:53 broke both the Mass. and NE record; this record held for 32 years. A major highlight of Rich's career was in outdoor track when he was crowned New England high school champion in the 800 meters.

Teri Wright (CRLS 1992)

Teri Wright certainly belongs in the upper echelon of the great athletes of Cambridge girls' track. In her senior year in indoor track, Teri was crowned GBL, state class and all-state hurdles champion. She was a multiple GBL All-Star, and a Boston Globe and Herald All-Scholastic. Teri still holds two all-time Cambridge girls' records in the 50 yd. hurdles and the 55 m hurdles. Her accomplishments in the hurdles culminated in her breaking the all time Mass. state record in the 55-meter hurdles! Teri is currently a major serving in the US Army.

Jeremy Collins (CRLS 1996)

Jeremy Collins had an outstanding and accomplished athletic career at CRLS. A GBL All-Star in basketball, Jeremy's major accomplishments, however, were in track & field. A multi event performer, Jeremy, competed in the sprints, long jump and relays. He won an astounding seventeen championships on the track and field while at CRLS. Jeremy also won multiple GBL all-star track awards, and he was honored as a Boston Globe and Herald All-Scholastic. Jeremy went on to an outstanding track career at the University of Rhode Island.

Stephanie Darden (CRLS 2004)

Stephanie Darden is among the best athletes to ever wear a Cambridge athletic uniform. A four-year starter on her basketball team, she led her team to a Division 1 state title in 2001-02. To this day, Stephanie holds the school scoring record with 1356 points. For three of her years at CRLS, she was MVP of her basketball team; league MVP and a Boston Globe and Herald All-Scholastic. Stephanie went on to a terrific basketball career at the University of Bridgeport.

Sky Anderson (CRLS 2008)

Sky Anderson was one of Cambridge's great women soccer players. As a sophomore, she earned All American status after leading her team to their second straight GBL league championship. (which also included an undefeated team in 2004) Over her high school soccer career, Sky scored a remarkable 70 goals 32 assists. She was the GBL league's MVP twice and was named All Scholastic by the Boston Herald. Sky then earned a scholarship to University of Maryland where she played Division 1 women's soccer for one of the top soccer programs in the country.

Special/ Distinguished ContributorsRich Rossi (Special/Distinguished Contributor)

Rich Rossi served as both Deputy City Manager, and then City Manager in Cambridge from 1981 to 2016. A 1964 graduate of Cambridge High and Latin, Rich never forgot his roots as an athlete growing up in Cambridge. Therefore, he was unwavering and determined in his desire to make the athletic facilities for the high school and citizens of Cambridge the best in the state. The award winning athletic complex at Danehy Park proudly exhibits his contributions to CRLS athletics. Rich has also played a key role in the overwhelming success of the Hall of Fame; most notably serving as master of ceremonies for the Hall of Fame inductions,

Paul Ryder (Special/Distinguished Contributor)

For 34 years, from 1982 to 2016, Paul Ryder was Cambridge's longest serving Director of Recreation. His contributions to the city and athletes of the Cambridge Public Schools are immeasurable. During his tenure in Cambridge, Paul was instrumental in the design, planning and implementation of the many multi purpose, award winning high school athletic facilities. Paul's work with the athletes of Cambridge extended beyond his position and duties as Recreation Director. He sponsored, initiated and formulated many projects tied into the athletes of Cambridge. Among them were the Annual City Run and the Special Olympics of Mass.

Coaches

Linda Town (Coach CRLS)

After coaching girls' volleyball at CRLS, Linda went on to establish boys' volleyball at CRLS. Quickly they became one of the premier teams in the state. Her successes included numerous all scholastics and team championships. Linda also was instrumental in implementing the Unified Sports Program in Cambridge that included special education students in athletic programs. In 2004, Linda was inducted into the Mass. Girls Volleyball Coaches Hall of Fame.

Paul Sullivan (Coach CHLS- CRLS)

Paul Sullivan was a 1961 graduate of CHLS; Paul lettered in three sports. This led him to a rewarding and fulfilling coaching career in Cambridge. Paul coached baseball and football in Cambridge for over thirty years at the high schools. He was head baseball coach at CRLS for twelve years. Paul was a respected coach and mentor for all Cambridge athletes. He went beyond what traditional coaches are expected to do when it comes to coaching high school athletes. His focus on academics, along with his coaching abilities, was a key factor in his success.

Bob Maguire (Coach CRLS)

For over 20 years, Bob Maguire had remarkable success coaching cross-country and track at CRLS. His teams won over thirty league, class and all-State championships. Many of his athletes were Globe and Herald All-Scholastics and Globe Athletes of the Year. Of Bob's many coaching attributes, he was legendary for his "big meet" preparations, and his gift as a motivator for his athletes. Bob was honored as a Boston Globe "Coach of the Year" four times. In 1998, Bob was inducted into the Mass. State Track Coaches Hall of Fame.

Teams

Rindge Technical 1963 Basketball

The 1963 Rindge Tech championship team is among the greatest teams in Cambridge sports' history. Led by the "H-Bombs," Billy Hewitt and Lou Herbert, the team stormed through the Suburban League with a 19-1 record. In winning the renowned Tech Tourney, they dispatched a great field, including perennial powerhouse Durfee. Team members were the captains of eight teams and were awarded numerous All-League, All-Scholastic, and MVP awards. Cambridge may love their sports teams, and excel at some, but it's fame and passion come from the great basketball teams, including this sublime, all-around one from 1963.

1996 CRLS Boys' Volleyball

The 1996 Cambridge Boys Volleyball team led by hall of famer, coach Maria DiClemente, had a season record of 21-1. Using a combination of hustle, teamwork and focus, the team captured its first ever-state title in 1996. Guided by three all-scholastics, the Cambridge boys' volleyball team snapped perennial powerhouse New Bedford's 72 game win streak in the state final. It was a total team effort that was exhibited by their magnificent spirit and athleticism.
